MESSAGE FROM YOUR PRESIDENT

Wow! Where does the time go? A year ago at this time I was just beginning my term as MDHA President, wondering how I could possibly handle this role and represent the MDHA in the way it deserves to be represented. I wanted to make sure that I gave my Association my all and being the voice of the MDHA was something I took very seriously because I was representing all of you. Now my term is over and the gavel has been passed. The last year has been a complete whirlwind but I can honestly say that I have enjoyed every minute of it. I have had some incredible experiences, met some wonderful people and learned more than I could have ever imagined.

A lot was accomplished this year and I am so thankful to have been a part of it. At the Board level we made some significant changes to the way we function, including revising our meeting structure and altering the formatting of some of our major member meetings. We are still working to review and update our bylaws and develop an MDHA Policy Manual. At the community level we were involved in a lot of very positive activities such as filling and delivering hampers for the Christmas Cheer Board, working alongside the Healthy Start for Mom and Me Parenting Program during National Dental Hygienists Week, holding our first-ever MDHA blood drive, hosting the CDHA's Annual General Meeting, participating in the 2011 Run for the Cure, numerous oral health initiatives and so much more.

It has really been a privilege to be your president this past year. There were challenges but we made significant progress while having a lot of fun and laughs along the way. I certainly learned a lot and want to thank each of you who helped to make this last year so gratifying for me.

Thank you to all of the MDHA board members, committee members and official representatives for the many hours you devote to the MDHA. Your constant support, hard work and determination never ceases to inspire me. I don't know how to make my THANK YOU big enough to really express my appreciation for all that you do. It's because of your time and energy that we are able to grow and evolve as a professional association and as a profession overall.

I also want to thank Cynthia Wiebe, our Executive Director (and my right hand WO-man!) for all of her support, dedication and hard work throughout the last year.

Thank you to Kathy Yerex for paving the way for me and for always being there for me when I had questions or needed guidance.

And finally, thank you to each and every member that volunteered at events throughout the last year - big or small. Without our volunteer members, we would never be able to reach so many members of the community and we certainly wouldn't be able to move our profession forward.

It has truly been an honor to serve as the President of the Manitoba Dental Hygienists Association for the 2011-2012 term. For those of you that think you might like to get more involved within the MDHA, help to advance the profession of Dental Hygiene and make a lasting impact within your community - I say go for it. I'm sure glad I did.

"In order to succeed, your desire for success should be greater than your fear of failure." Bill Cosby

Respectfully submitted,
Kaleigh Warden

MESSAGE FROM YOUR PRESIDENT ELECT

Summer is here!

I would first like to say a big thank you to Kaleigh Warden and Cynthia Wiebe along with all of the MDHA board members and volunteers who helped put together such an amazing AGM. I am always excited to have the opportunity to catch up with my fellow friends and colleagues and enjoy some yummy food. I especially enjoyed the presentation from guest speakers Dr. Peter Cooney and Penny White, RDH

Summer is officially here. As I transition into my new role as President of MDHA I reflect on this past year. My first thought is "time fly's when you are having fun"! What an exciting year this has been. I have had the privilege to work with some amazing people. MDHA provides such wonderful opportunities to get out in the community and give back as well as network with other professionals.

National Dental Hygienist Week was a big success. Thanks to all of the volunteers who came out to share their knowledge and expertise of the dental hygiene profession. Health promotion is a strong passion of mine and I am so happy that we were able to promote oral health to the community through providing presentations and dental screenings to the Healthy Start for Mom and Me programs, the segment on Living Well with CTV television as well as the Red Cross Blood Drive. Way to go!

MESSAGE FROM YOUR EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

First of all – a big thank you to everyone who came out to our AGM on June 9th. You helped make it a great success!!! I hope you had a fantastic time and that you enjoyed the updates from your association, the time to network with friends and colleagues, and the opportunity to hear our wonderful guest speakers – Dr. Peter Cooney and Penny White, RDH!!

As not all of our members could make it out to the AGM, I wanted to give just a few key highlights of the MDHA operations-end highlights I gave at the AGM into the newsletter as you'll be hearing more about many of these initiatives in the coming year.

1. Strategic planning update – the board held a half day workshop in spring to review progress these past two years and to review/renew our near-term objectives for the association. From our session, the executive was able to prioritize the top three high-level goals for this coming year (or two); these are:
  - To enhance board structure by developing a policy manual and revising bylaws
  - To develop resource materials for presentations and outreach initiatives
  - To increase the physical presence of MDHA in the community
2. Bylaw revision update – the need for a bylaw revision has been talked about on a number of occasions. While we had hoped to have the revisions complete for our AGM, due to changes in federal regulations for not-for-profit organizations that have necessitated a bylaw revision for CDHA, we have decided to hold off on finalizing our new bylaws until CDHA has had a chance to complete their revisions. We also plan to use this time to evaluate what, if any, federal changes have filtered down to the provincial level that may require us to adjust our bylaws a bit more.
3. Changes to board structure and operations – in order to improve our operational efficiency and overall accountability, the executive board has implemented a few changes (with a few more planned for this year!).
  - After a successful workshop on parliamentary procedure this fall, we have begun implementing more parliamentary procedure into our board meetings (and at the AGM).
  - We have also begun the process of creating new operational documentation including policy manuals and board procedure documents.
  - We've also reviewed board/committee/representative positions to ensure they accurately reflect the direction in which MDHA is going and define what roles those positions are intended to fill. It is our hope that the increased clarity will help our volunteers to feel more comfortable in the roles they undertake as well as provide more information to potential volunteers.

Further to the last point, we are only a couple people short of filling all our vacancies for the 2012-2013 year!!! Take a look at the position descriptions following and see if any of them are interesting to you. We're soooo close...!! Most positions can also be filled by a committee or team; if you'd like to sign up with a friend to work a position together we're all for that. (We will also help mentor you in a new position, so don't let the unknown put you off!) Please feel free to contact us to express interest or get more information.

I know that's a lot of information in a very short space of time. If you weren't able to attend the AGM and would like more details on any of the above – or have other questions/concerns about the board operations/positions – please feel free to contact me at any time!

I wish everyone a healthy and happy summer!

Cynthia Wiebe
Executive Director

I recently had the privilege of volunteering with Healthy Smile Happy Child creating an oral health display board for the GO 4 Health Expo at the Red River Ex. This was the first year that oral health was incorporated into the Go 4 Health Expo. Display board featured many important oral health facts about the importance of good oral health and tips on how to maintain proper oral health throughout various stages of life. It was a huge success!

This past year I reflect on how much I have learned from my friends and mentors on the MDHA Board. Without these amazing people I would not be where I am today. Although I have some big shoes fill I look forward to the year ahead serving as President of MDHA.

"DEAR EDITOR"

Hi there, I did a couple of things this year to promote oral health month in my community, and would like to share with you in case any one else is looking for a new idea:

See attached photo - I set up a display on Early Childhood Decay at my local library for the month, including the baby sippy cups labeled with sugar content of popular drinks and several handouts for parents. In addition, one morning I had a special session of BABY TEETH TALK where I was available for young families to share a time of stories and information. We had kids from 4 months to 4 years attend, and it went over pretty well.

(In photos: Judy Lochhead)

I also had a display set up at our local school which was called STOP THE POP and had many choice beverages on display with the amount of sugar and acid that were contained in them.

In addition to that, I prepared a presentation for classrooms where I was dressed in military attire, and came into the class with a duffle bag and got their attention by declaring WAR. My bag containing 2 rubber totes. One was labeled THE ENEMY, and contained many of the worst offenders for food choices, as well, as some sugar and a picture of plaque (and a label of all the different names it could be called. We identified the many "faces of sugar", and we learned about our enemies, plaque, sugar and acids, and how to identify them on the food labels. The other container was the First Aid kit, which contained the obvious brush, floss, toothpaste, water, mouthwash, dental tools, picture of a sealant, sugar free gum, and some better choice food and drink selections. We talked about how there is a war going on every day in our mouths and what we need to do if we want to win the war. It seemed to go over really well, lots of compliments from the staff and I am sorry that I do not have any photos of myself as a warrior!! Having the props in the totes helped me to remember all the things I had to mention in my presentation, but it was also good to have visuals for the kids, and we even passed some of the food items around so kids could see how to read the labels. At the end of the presentation, we also had a quick True/ False questionnaire so that I could assess if they had learned the key elements of the message I gave. It was also a good review and made sure all the important points had been covered.

I enjoyed it very much, and hope you will pass on my idea to others who may be looking for a new approach to an age-old message! I have been teaching oral health ed for about 35 years now, so its sometimes hard to think of a new way to reach my audience, and this year I think I hit on something that worked!

Judy Lochhead RDH, DT
Reston Manitoba

"DEAR EDITOR"

On Tuesday, April 24, 2012 Karen Kiazzyk Kaatz and I visited The Parkway Retirement Community to give an oral health presentation. The health resources co-ordinator, Sharron Davis, had heard that April was National Oral Health Month so she took it upon herself to contact MDHA and see if we would be willing to present to the residents of the home. As we were only able to present in the evening, Sharron was nervous that resident's would not come out to see our presentation. Normally presentations are held during the day at Parkway, but she took a chance and booked us for the evening. We told Sharron to let the residents know we would have a lot of very interesting and valuable information and that there would be freebies as well! The numbers were low to begin with, but the residents trickled in slowly and just before the presentation was scheduled to start, we had over 40 residents in attendance! The presentation was 45 minutes long and afterward the residents asked great questions and many made comments about all the new things they had learned.

Both Karen and I thoroughly enjoyed our time at Parkway and look forward to being invited back to take part in their health fair in the fall!

Kathy Yerex, BSc, RDH

On May 25/12, I was invited to do a presentation on oral health to two adult classes at the satellite campus of Red River Community College. This took place at Union Station where students learning English as an additional language were being trained. The MDHA supplied me with tooth brushes, paste, floss piks, and oral health pamphlets....all which were received graciously by the students.

(In photos: Gloria Kroeker)

We reviewed the types of teeth we have, and their function. In addition, there was an explanation of the teeth and supporting structures. There was also significant discussion on why taking care of ones teeth is important. Nutrition and diet was part of the session, as well as explanations of the consequences of neglecting ones oral health. The "hands on" training included: learning proper brushing technique, and introduction of flossing (which was new to most of the students). The participants were interested in where they could find accessible/affordable dental services and presented many dental health questions. It was an enjoyable morning of teaching and interacting with individuals from a multitude of cultural backgrounds. They were very grateful for the session, for their "take home" gifts, and it felt satisfying to be a part of this learning experience with them.

WORKPLACE HEALTH AND SAFETY UPDATE

WORKPLACE SAFETY

Due Diligence Compliance – What this Means for Employers and Employees

By Carola Hicks

Universally, health and safety legislation is intended to ensure that employers and employees act responsibly regarding health and safety within the workplace. The most powerful legal protection an occupational health and safety program can have is to be able to prove due diligence.

Defining Due Diligence means exercising care and taking precautions with workers' health and safety. It means identifying and minimizing health and safety risks to workers through proactive measures. Business owners and employers must set the direction through policies and procedures, and must provide the leadership and resources to implement an occupational health and safety program that demonstrates a reasonable standard of care and protects workers from work-related injuries, illnesses and fatalities. WHMIS training is just one part of this mandate and should be provided annually to all employees.

Safety is not a luxury, it's a legal right!

When it comes to workplace safety, workers, supervisors and employers all play different roles and have different responsibilities. But everyone has rights that they should be aware of - because those rights can mean the difference between taking a risk and taking a proper stance on unsafe practices.

Everyone working in Manitoba has the following rights:

1. The right to know. You have the right to know about the hazards in your job. Your employer or supervisor must tell you about anything in your job that can hurt you. Your employer must make sure you are provided with the information you need so that you can work safely.
2. The right to participate. You have the right to take part in keeping your workplace healthy and safe. Depending on the size of the company, you can be part of the Health and Safety Committee or be a Health and Safety Representative. You also have the right to participate in training and information sessions to help you do your job.
3. The right to refuse unsafe work. If you believe your job is likely to endanger you or others, you have an obligation to report the unsafe situation to management. If the situation is not corrected and you feel your health and safety is still in danger, you have the right to refuse to perform the work without reprisal.

For a copy of Manitoba's Workplace Safety and Health Legislation go to:

<http://web2.gov.mb.ca/laws/statutes/ccsm/w210e.php>

As much as employers have responsibilities to their workers, workers also have responsibilities to apply and use the resources and training their employers have provided. When all parties, employers and workers alike, take ownership of the philosophy of workplace health and safety the internal responsibility system (IRS) is in effect to the benefit of all.

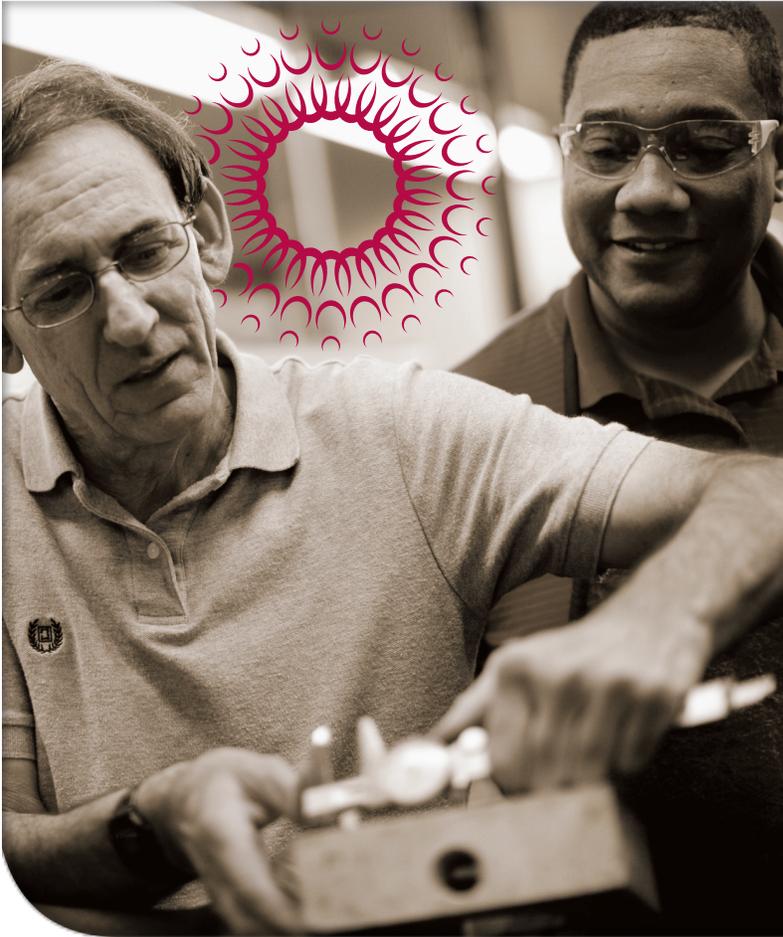

Part 3 of the Workplace Safety series will explain the role and duties of the health and safety representative and health and safety committee member
